PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

September means gearing up for a busy Fall season, and as your new President, my first order of business is to welcome three individuals to the Board of Managers: Susan Aitcheson, Carl Helmetag and Caroline Reed, all of whom bring experience in the areas of finance and administration and have served on various non-profit boards in Rhode Island. I would also like to recognize Judy Vilmain as a new addition to the Executive Committee. On behalf of the Board of Managers, we look forward to working with you in the coming months.

I could not have been more pleased by the attendance at the Annual Meeting and Strawberry Festival and wish to thank you for coming out and sharing in the PAC experience and celebration, and for your overwhelming support. In my President's message, I spoke about the importance of Governance. Since June the Governance Committee began laying the groundwork with help from consultant Gayle Gifford from Cause and Effect. Interviews of senior staff, as well as several focus groups, have been completed as part of the process. We all look forward to the work ahead. One of the most important moments was in presenting the PAC medal. I cannot think of three more deserving individuals receiving the PAC medal as Dr. Albert Glucksman, Clark Schoettle and Dr. Alfredo Esparza (posthumous). We are grateful for their commitment and contributions to PAC.

We kicked off the summer with a stellar National Open Juried Exhibition with over 700 entries vying for position and 63 acceptances, of which 12 PAC members and one staff member exhibited work. Congratulations to all on a diverse and dynamic exhibition! The PAC never sleeps... a few summer evening favorites included a culinary feast Collage Buffet created by Chef Drew and his staff... Pop-up: The Art of Mixology... and Craft Beer Night. Artists were also busy in the Masiello Studio enjoying workshops with nationally known artists, many of whom are members of PAC. Thanks to the Education Committee for creating such an amazing lineup of mastery.

In the galleries, I could not help but feel the ever so present ominous spirit of H.P. Lovecraft in the exhibit, ARS NECRONOMICA 2019: Dark Dreams in the Divine City. Congratulations to all PAC members for their acceptance in this exhibit. Be sure to see Mr. Lovecraft's statue, quietly, but prominently, on view in our brick alleyway.

Mark your calendars for upcoming Fall events including the anticipated Members' Show 2019, when $5,000 in prizes will be awarded by Robert Dilworth, MFA, Professor, Painting, Drawing, Design, and African American Art History at University of Rhode Island. AND... I know I haven't had my fill of lobster just yet and you'll want to reserve early for several special evening dinners (bring a guest or two!) such as Surf & Turf Night and our End of Summer New England Clambake. AND... you won't want to miss Margarita Madness, another festive evening of enthusiastic, high-spirited fun and entertainment cooked up by the membership committee. The Kimberly McHale Jazz Band are sure to get everyone on the dance floor, and if it suits you, come in your finest Margaritaville attire to win a prize for "Best Dressed". Reserve early!

Along with the routine business of managing the Club are projects that will help engage others including our valued staff. We are closing out the summer with the printing of the PAC Employee Handbook which took a great deal of time by many HR professionals, staff and legal counsel. Thank you to those who offered valued input and expertise. You know who you are.

In closing, I am looking forward to the President's Reception on October 2nd in celebration, with you, of this historic gem and its important traditions.

See you around the Club,

Nancy Gaucher-Thomas
President, Providence Art Club

FALL CLASSES

September 23 - December 6

Registration now open

Fall is 'Back to Studio' time, and time to bring your artmaking skills to the next level.

We are offering 24 classes in pastel, watercolor, oil/acrylic, photography, drawing, printmaking, film appreciation, and more!

A complete listing of classes has been sent to your inbox. The schedule is also available on our website at www.providenceartclub.org/classes-workshops.

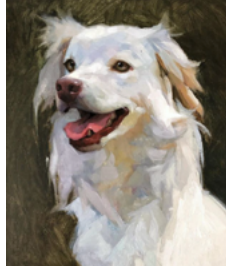

To register, e-mail Angel Dean at angel@providenceartclub.org

POP UP EVENT

September 18, 6-8pm

Artist talk and Alla Prima painting demonstration with Jennifer Gennari

If you missed your chance to sign up for Jennifer Gennari's sold-out workshop Alla Prima Portrait — Pets and Wild Animals you have another chance to see how this international award-winning artist captures the life energy of her animal subjects. She will discuss and demonstrate her 'Alla Prima' painting method in this fun Pop-Up Event. If you are lucky enough to be taking her workshop, you know what a great opportunity this is!

Angell's Lane Bar Menu will be available from 4-8pm to enjoy before or during this event. Invite a friend to share this interesting evening!

Fee: $15 for members & guests. Reservations are not required, but if you plan to attend, please let Angel know at 401-331-1114 ext. 16 or angel@providenceartclub.org.

Angell's Lane, our lounge area and social gathering spot, is back from summer break starting Sept 10. Tuesday-Saturday from 4 till 8pm.
