PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Thanks to those who came to the President's Reception, a wonderful evening celebrating our historic club and its members. I was touched by the warmth and kindness extended to me, personally, during this special evening. Chef Drew and staff's scrumptious menu brought guests back for seconds. Members sang Happy Birthday to our most recent centenarian, artist Al Albrekton, around a masterpiece cake by Pastry Chef Julia. I touched on plans for the 140th year celebration of PAC. It's going to be an exciting 2020 with a theme of Art Education and Learning. More to come in the months ahead.

Sadly, we say goodbye to Gail Armstrong who passed away on October 1, a valued friend to so many, who served on many committees and was a dedicated member and teacher. I'm pleased to report that silhouettes of Gail and her husband Craig Masten will adorn our walls in the very near future.

Two important exhibitions come to a close: The Max Mays and Mary Castelnovo Galleries were awash in vibrant watercolors by Al Albrekton and Jim Myette. These two veterans of the medium make it look effortless, with marks so deliberate and fresh. In the Dodge House Gallery the PAC Scholarship Exhibition brought in a breath of fresh air with art by students from RISD, Salve Regina University, Rhode Island College, Roger Williams University, Brown University, and University of RI. Special thanks to Dr. Al Glucksman for his vision, generosity, and support of this exhibition.

Celebrating the 130th year of our Steinway, members and their guests were entertained and captivated by composer and pianist Ben Nacar. Thank you, former President David DePetrillo for continuing to bring unsurpassed programs and talent to our Club.

Artists are working feverishly to fill our gallery walls for the 115th Little Pictures Exhibition. A much anticipated exhibition and sale which appeals to the seasoned art patron and the person just beginning their collection of fine art. I hope to see you at the Members' Preview Reception when a mad dash to claim a special piece of art begins. Each year the artwork raises the bar for the following year. Let's make this the best year yet, and get the word out to buy local original art. Invite friends, family, colleagues AND collectors to view this fine display of work just in time for holiday gift giving. And remember, the show is refreshed daily with new work.

Lastly, I ask that you support our valued staff during this year's Employee Holiday Fund Appeal. We're aiming for 100% member participation this year. Details on page 2.
