PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Welcome to Fall!

At the Providence Art Club we welcome the cooler weather and the beauty of the Fall season, as we look forward to new gallery exhibitions and social events, along with classrooms filled with the smell of paint, ink and member's chatter, and wonderful new menu items prepared in Chef Drew's kitchen.

Our Margarita Madness membership event kicked off the Fall social calendar with a bang — heard all the way in the tropics! Ask a bunch of spirited artists, art patrons and friends to dress Margaritaville-style, and you know they will rise to the challenge with a burst of color and creativity. Congratulations to best dressed award winners Judy Vilmain and Tom Monahan. Our valued Membership Committee did their usual amazing job planning and executing a stellar event.

Please put October 2nd on your calendar for our annual President's Reception, where, among other messages, I will unveil some of what our 2020 Steering Committee is planning for our 140th Anniversary Celebration. The President's Reception was developed to celebrate and thank our valued PAC members with a delicious dining event, including a delectable array of passed hors d'oeuvres and food stations, salads, and desserts. Free for members, ($30 for guests). Angell's Lane bar will be serving à la carte.

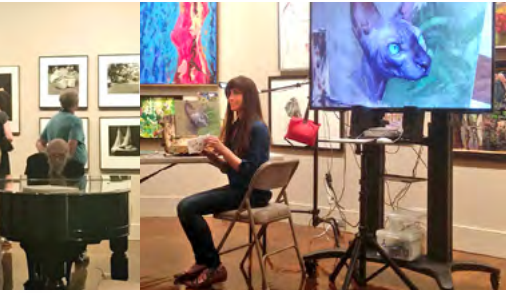

Besides our line up of classes, which are becoming increasingly popular and in demand, we have many workshops and Pop-Ups planned. Artist member Kendra Ferreira will demonstrate her color pencil technique and introduce her new book Color Pencil Drawing on October 15, and on October 27 we will present "Kokedama in your Landscape". In this one-day workshop we will learn about native plants and create our own Kokedama hanging plants, a new and exciting direction in the way of workshops for PAC.

It is with very mixed feeling we say 'thank you' to Peter Lisle, who is stepping down as head of our Investment Committee after so many years of exemplary service. A member since 1977, Peter is a Life Member and received the prestigious Art Club Medal in 2018. He promises us that his broad smile and booming voice will continue to fill rooms at the Club.

I am pleased to report that we just came through a banner month proposing and electing 12 new members. So when you see new faces here on Thomas Street please give them a warm welcome.

MEMBERS' NIGHT

Friday, October 18, 6pm

Fall Concert, Dinner & 130th Steinway Piano Birthday Celebration

*Featuring Pianist
Ben Nacar*

For well over a century the rich sound of our Club's beloved Steinway piano has delighted our members. Pianist Ben Nacar will demonstrate why the acclaimed Steinway sound is so magical with selections that will include Beethoven, Chopin, and Liszt. We'll also sing a joyful Happy 130th Birthday to our historic Steinway, which has been restored to its 1889 showroom elegance.

Mr. Nacar is a native East-Sider and graduate of Brown University. His original compositions include works for solo piano, chamber ensembles, concert band, and full orchestra.

We'll begin our 130th Birthday celebration with a reception and dinner of Chef Drew's musically-inspired cuisine. Plan to join us for what will surely be a memorable evening.

ONE DAY WORKSHOP

Sunday, October 27, 1-3pm

Kokedama in Your Landscape

Kokedama in Your Landscape, by papermaking artist Megan Singleton spreads information about local and native plants using the Japanese Bonsai method of containing plants into small moss balls and that are hung up, a technique known as Kokedama. Participants learn how to create their own Kokedama and take it back to plant into their landscape. At the Providence Art Club, participants of all ages will be familiarized with Rhode Island native and wild plants

Presentation $15

Reserve a Kokedama plant to take home for an additional $30. (Total $45)

Quantities of Kokedama are limited, so reserve early if you would like one!
