PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Welcome 2020! A historic year for the Providence Art Club during which we will commemorate the 140th Anniversary of the founding of our venerable Club. The 140th Steering Committee is working on a year-long celebration, with festivities and activities for our members and guests. There will be opportunity for community outreach and engagement with other like-minded organizations to share our mission and passion for "arts culture". You'll want to Save the Date, February 21st, when we will kick off the celebration with Founders' Day.

As 2019 came to a close, so did the 115th Little Pictures Show. With over 500 artworks sold and, at this writing, a record number of sales reaching over $140,000. Congratulations!...to all PAC artists for keeping our walls full of vibrant artworks that spoke to so many who came to view and make purchases. Thank you Gallery Manager Michael Rose, Gallery Assistants Bri, Abba and Ari and Controller Nancy Plunkett for making this year such a resounding success!

The art spirit was celebrated with so many wonderful holiday events and special dinners and I am very grateful, as I know you are, for our General Manager Seb Borges and his staff, who give 110% and make us always feel at home. Thank you.

I am pleased to report some very exciting news, The Board of Managers has approved the establishment of a new endowment fund at the Rhode Island Foundation (RIF). It's part of our commitment to secure the long-term financial viability of the Club. Establishing a fund at the RIF will help ensure our beloved Club will be here for future generations. PAC will now be one of many RI organizations that have partnered with the RIF for the purpose of building and preserving funds in perpetuity. The initial funding for this new endowment was made possible by a few generous donors. During 2020 we'll be sending you more information on how you may support PAC both now, and in the future.

Be sure to congratulate our own Angel Dean (my Leo sister) on 25 years at the Providence Art Club. Angel wears many hats and does it all with ease and flair. Her dedication and commitment to PAC are unmatched. Here's to you Angel! ❤️

In closing, I would like to thank you, our members, for your continued support of our extraordinary Club. You inspire us all and make the Providence Art Club the best it can be.

Bring on 2020!
Warmest regards,

WELCOME NEW MEMBERS

100 Things to Do in Rhode Island Before You Die
by Bob Curley

Bob Curley has proudly called Rhode Island home for over twenty years. In his new book 100 Things to Do in Rhode Island Before You Die, he confesses the reasons he fell in love with the rich history and quirky character of his adopted home. It's no surprise to our members that our very own historic Providence Art Club is included in his recently published book.

You're sure to enjoy his take on the things that make our state such a special place to live and visit.

Bob is a travel writer and guidebook author who has written extensively about his current home state of Rhode Island. When he's not exploring he lives with his wife in a lakeside cottage along with a cat, dog and several raccoons. There are a hundred good reasons to join us for a memorable evening.

FEEDBACK FROM MEMBERS

"Frances Middendorf's classes are a delightful blend of drawing, studying art history, and stimulating your imagination, all while exploring the historic and notable art treasures of the RISD Museum. Her knowledge of the different periods and civilizations represented in the museum are astounding and informative. Her delight in our finished work makes her a most sympathetic and enthusiastic teacher and she is quite adept at providing a supportive experience for all from beginner to advanced." — Anne Carty

"I'm excited that Suzi Cozzens is returning with a brand new class after finishing her MFA. The concepts and skills she introduces apply not only to book arts, they've helped me think more creatively about my own art practice and opened new possibilities. Her teaching style is open and warm. I've taken several of her classes at the Art Club... each has been excellent and has me eagerly looking forward to the next." — Joanne Breslin

"I've been studying with Kevin Gilmore for the past couple of years. He brings enthusiasm to his teaching — he encourages, challenges, and gives spot-on critique. He can look at one of my paintings and with his sharp eye, have the perfect thing to say to help me bring it to completion. I've recommended Kevin's class to others, and I've seen their work improve from studying with him. I recommend his class 100%." — Angel Dean
