PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

You can almost feel it in the air. Spring is just around the corner, and soon the cold evenings will make way for warm days ahead, commencing a variety of exciting events here at our Club as we continue to celebrate our 140th year! As artists, a change in season can ignite, perhaps, what may be much needed inspiration after a long winter, and an awakening to be more in tune with our surroundings, finding new ways to see things.

The Winter Members' Exhibition was full of imaginative and thoughtful works, celebrating exactly the kind of enthusiasm and vision we hope to pursue in our creative journey daily. Congratulations to all of the award winners!

On February 21st, we officially kicked off our 140th Anniversary celebrations with Founders Night. Approximately 115 members and their guests attended - enjoying sushi boats galore, a variety of apps, lobster sliders, and a very special toast to our founders, drinking a signature gin cocktail that is still quite alive and well after all these years. But perhaps, what topped the cake, no pun intended, was Chef Julia's incredible 140th Anniversary masterpiece — a work of art depicting the Fleur de Lys and its glorious architecture, ridges and grooves detailed with frosting! Eleanor Talbot even met the press for us — presented by members Audrey and Tom Monahan, and a special performance by Dan Butterworth who presented his unforgettable marionette tribute to our founders. Thank you to all who made the evening a memorable one!

Founders Night is just the beginning of so many ways you can celebrate and support your Club this year. Friday, March 27, is Members' Night, featuring Revelations and Reminiscences, as three artist friends (and PAC forefathers) George Whitaker, Charles Walter Stetson and Sydney Burleigh reappear with stories of the Art Club's early days. Be sure to make your reservations, you won't want to miss this — not to mention the fabulous menu paired with the evening!

Reminder: The deadline for The National Open Juried Exhibition 2020 is March 13. This will be juried by Matthew Hargraves, PhD, Chief Curator, Yale Center for British Art, and includes $6,000 in prizes, with a Best in Show Prize of $1,000! To view the full call for entry and apply for this call, please visit: artist.callforentry.org/festivals_unique_info.php?ID=7526

Since we're on the subject of finding inspiration, don't forget about this incredible opportunity to travel abroad in May and be inspired by the beauty of the west coast of Ireland. This trip, designed for the Club and led by Ron Rosenstock, takes place May 5-14, 2020. All bookings are handled on a first-come, first-served basis. Given the limited enrollment, you should declare your interest to Strabo Tours by calling 607-756-8676 to join this trip at your earliest opportunity.

Whether it's travel, history, or being in the studio painting with your Club friends, inspiration is not hard to find — it's simply a new way of seeing. So, let's welcome March with an open mind and heart and seek what inspires us as artists and people in the months to come.

Warm regards,

Nancy Gaucher-Thomas
President, Providence Art Club

Revelations of Three Forefathers

George Whitaker, Charles Walter Stetson and Sydney Burleigh share stories of the Art Club's early days.

What would happen if three forefathers of the Providence Art Club were to reunite for one fascinating evening at their beloved Club? You'll get to eavesdrop when Whitaker, Stetson, and Burleigh share stories around Stetson's very own table.

They'll drink ale from ancient Club steins as they discuss the Club's founding with men and women members, their close friend Edward Bannister, their studios in Fleur de Lys, and the Art Workers Guild.

And they'll highlight our Club's rich heritage with paintings, letters, Burleigh's scrapbooks and more. You'll be entertained and enlightened as Craig Masten, Chris Ratcliffe and Tom Monahan reverently bring these three artist friends back to life as part of our 140th Anniversary Celebration.
