

Call for Art:

Providence Art Club College Exhibition 2024

Free to Enter, Over $1,000 in Cash Prizes

Exhibition Overview: The Providence Art Club invites emerging artists currently enrolled as art majors and minors in colleges and universities throughout Rhode Island to exhibit their work in a special exhibition in its historic Maxwell Mays Gallery from February 18 – March 7, 2024. This show will feature cash prizes and the chance for a select artist to be the subject of a solo exhibition in 2025. This is an opportunity for promising student artists to exhibit at one of the nation's oldest arts organizations and to be recognized for their talent and vision.

Eligibility:

- Open to students who are currently enrolled in any college or university in Rhode Island.
- Must be majoring or minoring in Studio Art or related discipline.
- Work must be original, and properly prepared for installation with hanging apparatus supplied by the artist. If work utilizes non-traditional installation or hanging methods, please contact Gallery Manager Michael Rose to make sure it is acceptable.
